DATA VALIDATION RULES

1. General

    1.1. Each ship should be inspected only once during the inspection campaign.

    1.2. CIC report should be related to a corresponding initial inspection report.

2. Inspection Authority

    2.1. Shall not be empty.

    2.2. Shall be from the list of Authorities according to the AMIS coding system.

    2.3. Shall correspond to the Inspection Authority code.

    2.4. Shall not match the ship flag code.

3. Ship name

    3.1. Shall not be empty.

    3.2. Shall contain only ASCII codes within decimal 032 – 090 inclusive.

    3.3. Field length shall be at least 3 characters and not be more than 50 characters.

    3.4. Shall not contain leading spaces.

4. Ship IMO No.

    4.1. Shall not be empty.

    4.2. Shall be a seven-digit number, validated by inner product and check digit at the end (The rightmost digit of the sum of leftmost six digits multiplied by their orders should be equal to the rightmost digit of the IMO No.). The first digit may not be 0 (zero).

    4.3. If IMO No. is unavailable or unknown, "0000000" shall be recorded as the IMO No.

5. Date of inspection

    5.1. Shall not be empty.

    5.2. Shall be in the DD.MM.YYYY format (leading zeroes are mandatory).

    5.3. Shall be between 01.09.2023 and 30.11.2023 inclusive.

    5.4. Shall be the same date as the associated PSC inspection date.

6. Inspection port

    6.1. Shall not be empty.

    6.2. Shall be from the list of ports of the Reporting Authorities in accordance with the AMIS coding system.

    6.3. Shall correspond to the Inspection Port code.

7. Answers

    7.1. Shall not be empty.

    7.2. Shall be YES, NO, or N/A.

    7.3. In case of "NO", report shall be accompanied by a deficiency with the appropriate code 07120 / 04103 / 07105/ 07106 / 07116 / 07113 / 07114 / 07109 / 07110 / 04109 / 07125 on the relevant questions.

    7.4. In case of detention, the relevant deficiency in the PSC report should be detainable deficiency followed by an action taken code 30 and detention marking should also be marked in the CIC report.

    7.5. "N/A" can be used only if the question is not applicable to the ship.